

Since 1986 Bishop Pat has conducted an independent ministry from The Oratory in Larne, Northern Ireland.

Generally Bishop Pat has become the "unofficial chaplain" to disaffected and alienated Catholics and Christians, and others, from all over Ireland and further afield.

Bishop Pat conducts marriages for the following people:

- Ordinary single couples with no complications.
- Divorced Catholics and Christians.
- Mixed Religion couples.
- Marriages within church.
- Religious marriages outside church – i.e. at home, overseas, secular venue etc.
- Marriages for others with special requests/needs.

Marriages can take place at:

- The Oratory, Larne, County Antrim, Northern Ireland
- Other Locations : Bishop Pat is always willing to consider alternative locations for your wedding. Such venues in the past have included castles and other ancient monuments, hotels, stately homes, even hospitals. Please discuss such requests with our Larne office.
- Overseas : Bishop Pat also travels overseas to conduct marriage ceremonies and blessings.

Bishop Pat, as a registered State officiant / solemniser, is often in a position to celebrate a civilly valid marriage, as well as the religious ceremony, thereby making it unnecessary for couples to be married at the registry office also.
